NOT A BREAKFAST JOB.

England seems likely to spend considerable money to whip Egypt. She may become involved with Russia before the end comes. If India revolts, as there is a possibility, her hands will be pretty full. The population of Egypt proper is 5,500,000; Nubia, 1,000,000; Sudan (annexed in 1875) including Darfour and Harar, 10,500,000. Total, 17,000,000. The population of Egypt proper is made up of Arabs (Fellahs) 4,500,000; Bedouins, 300,000; Turks, 10,000; Copts, 500,000; Nubians and Soudanese (chiefly slaves) 40,000; Jews, 20,000; various foreigners, 90,000. Nearly all are Mohammedans except the Copts, who are Christians. In the Mohammedan theological system, there are prophecies of the coming of a second Prophet and leader. One claiming to be he, has now appeared and is drawing a large following. Arabi Pasha is said to recognize him and is arousing the sentiments of the people to place the war on a religious basis.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"Billy" writes from Virginia City to the San Francisco Examiner as follows: "Jewett W. Adams lives in Carson. He is a candidate for Governor. He has held the position of Lieutenant Governor for three terms, and like that notorious old war horse, General Grant, who would take everything in his reach, it appears that he never gets satisfied. The people of Carson, where Jewett is well known, say that they have had enough of him, and it is about time he should retire to private life."

O. N. Noteware writes to the Carson Tribune to the effect that, inasmuch as that journal has taken the liberty to use his name in connection with the office of Secretary of State without any authority, that it do him the justice to correct its error and inform its readers that he is not now, neither will he be, a candidate for any office. The Tribune begs his pardon and says "pure friendship" suggested to them his name. "Pure friendship" in the Tribune office is good.

A Lancaster, Pa., special says yesterday's storm was very destructive and caused heavy loss in the southern end of the county to bridges, cattle, etc.

Ex-Surgeon Marmion, of the Navy, a skillful oculist, has examined Lieutenant Daneshower's eyes, and says one will entirely recover and he thinks the other will not be entirely lost.

From the midland counties of England the crop reports are still gloomy, but the present fine weather must be making a wonderful difference everywhere. The farmers in Sussex, Surrey and Kent are radiant for the first time since '78.

THEIR REMAINS TO BE BROUGHT HOME.

WASHINGTON, August 8. Secretary Chandler yesterday cabled to the United States Minister at St. Petersburg that Congress had made provision for bringing home the remains of Lieutenant-Commander De Long and his companions, and asked that he telegraph the Russian Minister at Yakutsk to have pledges built to bring the bodies to Orenburg, where metallic cases would be found in waiting.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

EASTERN.

Disaster on the Ohio.

St. Louis, August 7. Information regarding the explosion of the steamer Gold Dust, near Hickman, Ky., to-night, is extremely meagre, owing to poor telegraphic facilities. Nothing is known here at 11 P. M. except that the steamer exploded her boiler and burned to the water edge. Captain McCord was slightly wounded and Wm. Ingram, the third clerk, was killed. Death. Thos. E. Childs, agent of the Anchor line at Cairo, with three physicians, nurses and a telegraph operator left Cairo on a fast tug for the scene of the disaster about half past 8 o'clock. The steamer City of Alton, it is expected, was near by shortly after the accident. She will of course stop and render all assistance possible. Captain John A. Scudder, President, and Captain John P. Kaiser, Superintendent of the Anchor line, are doing all in their power to render speedy and effective aid to the sufferers. The Gold Dust belonged to the Anchor line, and all the officers and most of the crew belong in St. Louis.

HICKMAN, August 7. The steamer Gold Dust exploded her boilers at 3 o'clock just after leaving Hickman, and 47 persons were killed and 17 are missing. The boat was landed in an eddy just above town, and through the exertions of the citizens the cabin passengers, engineers and part of the crew and deck passengers were taken ashore and removed to hotels and residences. Twenty-four of the injured were lying in Hickman's dry goods store at one time where they received every attention before being removed to more comfortable places with that sympathy and generosity for which the citizens of Hickman are noted. They have done and are doing all they can for the sufferers. The following is a list of the injured: Captain John T. McCord, slightly scalded; M. S. Gray, pilot; Sol. Pierce, 1st mate; John Longiers, second clerk; Wm. Ingram, third clerk; Wm. Trevis, barkeeper; Pat Daniels, cabin watchman; John O'Neil, deck hand; Tom Beck, deck sweeper; Dick Phillips, porter; Jim, 2d porter; two pantries; two roustabouts, three firemen, two barbers, 10 deck passengers, and Mrs. Thompson, a cabin passenger, are severely scalded. D. Duffman, 3d mate; P. Derried, freight clerk; Jas. Monahan, sailor; Mr. Bridge, Mr. Thornton, Mr. Blank and Mrs. Blank, slightly scalded. One cabin passenger, one deck passenger, one fireman, two coal heavers, eight roustabouts, four cabin boys and Jas. Lawson, the 1st cook, are missing. The boat run to shore and was made fast. The fire burned to the water's edge when she sunk.

St. Louis, August 8. No additional particulars of the explosion of the steamer Gold Dust near Hickman, Ky., yesterday, has been received here at this writing, 10 A. M. The steamer City of Alton is reported to have arrived at Cairo last night with the dead and wounded and will come through to St. Louis direct. The Gold Dust was built in 1875 by Captain E. W. Gould, at a cost of $59,000. She was purchased a year later by the Anchor line, and was valued at the time of the disaster at $55,000. The company carried no insurance. She is therefore a total loss.

Overworked Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, August 7. The House, after various recesses, reassembled at 8 o'clock to-night. Hiscock, of New York, moved to adjourn.

Anderson, of Kansas, moved that when the House adjourns it be to meet at 8 o'clock to-morrow, saying it seemed their royal majesties in the Senate could not sit at night, and that the House had nothing in the world to do.

Blackburn suggested that the House adjourn until Friday, and Hiscock said that if the Senate took up the tax bill to-morrow he would have no objection to adjourning until that date.

Thereupon Anderson withdrew his motion and the House adjourned till to-morrow. Among the few members there was a good deal of indignation manifested at the action in adjourning to-day without taking action on the resolution for adjournment. Members congregated in groups, and many expressed a desire that the President would avail himself of his constitutional right to declare both Houses adjourned. In fact Henderson, of Kansas, had a resolution drawn requesting the President to exercise that right, and only refrained from offering it to-night at the request of his colleagues.

Another member expressed a desire to grant the Senate the extra mileage which its labor asked for, providing they would go home and stay there. Altogether a strong sentiment prevailed that the Senate had treated the House in a cavalier manner.

An amendment offered in the Senate this evening by Cameron, of Wisconsin, for the final adjournment at 11 o'clock to-night was defeated through a failure of the Clerk to hear the response of Senator Bayard, who voted in the affirmative. Had this vote been so recorded the amendment would have been adopted.

The President and Cabinet were at the Executive Mansion this afternoon for the purpose of facilitating the adjournment of Congress. All Congressional business was acted upon as soon as received. The President approved the bill to reimburse the Creek Orphan Fund; the Act for the sale of part of the Omaha Indian Reservation, Neb.; the Act for the relief of the executors of John W. Forney; the Sunday Civil Appropriation bill; the Act to establish postroads; the knitt goods bill; the Act relinquishing the title which still remains in the United States to all lots or portions of ground within the city of Burlington, Iowa.

The Temperance Movement. CHICAGO, August 8. John B. Finch, who was one of the most earnest advocates of prohibition in Iowa, and who has lately been lecturing in his own State (Nebraska) on the same subject, says the people are working to secure the submission of a constitutional amendment prohibiting the sale or manufacture of liquors for the drinking purposes. They are making a thorough canvass with good chances of success. If the amendment is submitted it will carry without a doubt by a large majority. Interviews with leading prohibitionists in Chicago show that they view with some alarm the inroads of temperance advocates in adjoining States, and that they are formed in a compact body and intend to fight the movement in all their interests, from inception with money, votes and political and personal influence. They generally advocate high licenses as a means of suppressing groggeries and disreputable saloons. The German temperance element have called a German temperance convention in this city for August 25, and have elected two delegates to represent them in the national temperance convention here August 23.

Nearing Its End.

WASHINGTON, August 8. After the reading of the journal Hiscock moved to take a recess for an hour. Atkins remarked if the House was to be delayed by recesses from hour to hour he preferred to adjourn for three days. O'Neil suggested that Hiscock make good use of the few minutes to reply to the criticism made upon the action of the House by Senator Plumb; but Hiscock stated he did not propose to make any reply. Several ineffectual attempts were then made to have private bills considered, and at 11:45 the House took a recess until noon. When the House reassembled at noon they took a recess until 2:45.

Before the last recess the Senate amendment to the House resolution for adjournment was concurred in. A committee of three was authorized to wait upon the President and announce that Congress was ready to adjourn. Hiscock, Carpenter and Adams were appointed as such committee. WASHINGTON, August 8. The House has adjourned sine die.

Democratic Harmony.

SARATOGA, August 7. The Democratic Senators from the City of New York met this evening, except Boyd (Tammany), and adopted the following resolution: Resolved, That the Democratic Senators from New York again reiterate their appeal for harmony, and respectfully urge on the State Central Committee the adoption of such a plan for a State Convention and the selection of such a ticket as will command the approval of thoughtful men, and secure the cordial support of the entire party.

Pooling Their Issues.

CHICAGO, August 8. The indications are that Robert R. Hitt, the Republican nominee for Congress from the Sixth Illinois District, will be nominated to fill out the term of the late Representative Hawk, of the old Fifth District. The Democrats in the Sixth Illinois District are instructing their delegates to oppose Weaver, who is trying to get the Greenbackers and Democrats to combine on him.

Capture of a Train Robber.

KANSAS CITY, August 8. Maurice Becker, a train robber and escaped convict, well known in Pennsylvania, was arrested here last night. In April Becker, with three others, received a life sentence for robbing a train at South Mountain, near Philadelphia. In May, during the prison deliver three of the train robbers escaped.

Alabama Election News.

MONTGOMERY, August 7. The election for Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney-General, Superintendent of Education, Treasurer, Auditor and members of the General Assembly was held to-day. So far no disturbance has been reported. The election was very quiet. Democratic success is conceded.

English Taking a Hand.

INDIANAPOLIS, August 8. In response to an offer of General Terrell, of the Republican State Central Committee, to circulate 10,000 copies of Wm. H. English's recent speech among country Republican clubs of Indiana, English replied accepting the proposition and only stipulating that the Republican Committee shall pay the cost of preparation. The letter is bitterly sarcastic on the subject of temperance.
